

CONVENIENT DECISIONS.

Recently when Judge Field presented a bill for ten dollars a day for traveling expenses "while his Court was in session," Attorney General Miller refused to pay the bill on the ground that the Court was not in session when traveling from place to place. Then Field pulled Miller's decision in the Nagle case in which he decided that the Court was organized when Nagle shot down Judge Terry at Lathrop.

When Miller refused to pay ten dollars per day while Field was traveling he construed the law as he believed it to be, but when he gave his opinion in the Nagle case he gave an "influenced" opinion to save Field and now Field is mean enough to expose this fact to the world. That Miller did not believe he was promulgating good law at this time Field was in danger, is now most pitifully apparent. But Field seems to glory in rubbing his triumph into the public mind! In the Nagle case he held that the U. S. law had precedence over the State law; now he comes forward in the Boyd case in Nebraska and holds that the United States law does not have precedence over the State law.

He filed this as a dissenting opinion, knowing perfectly well that the two would be compared and commented upon. He did this to emphasize the fact in the public mind that he can use the law as he chooses and that being backed by the most powerful corporations in the country, he will do as he pleases with the law or anything else.

Nothing pleases him so much as to have his contempt for the law known and commented on.

NOT A CANDIDATE.

The Reno Journal publishes the following:

The rumors published in the Washington correspondence of the San Francisco papers, that Francis G. Newlands would contest for the U. S. Senatorship from Nevada seems to be wholly without foundation. Mr. Newlands and his family are now on the briny deep on their way to Europe. They left New York last Wednesday on the Steamship Teutonic, and will probably remain abroad some time.

The departure of Mr. Newlands at this time for Europe, implies that he will not be in the field for any office in this State. It is true that he was announced as a candidate for Representative in Congress last Spring but that was doubtless intended as a joke as he has not been in the State since. If he intended to run for either position he would now be in Nevada attending to his fences, instead of crossing the broad Atlantic. Possibly it may be arranged to give the gentleman the refusal of the nomination for Congressman as he might represent us in Washington better than a resident of the State, and if such an arrangement is made, the fact that he has gone to Europe will not make any difference. It is more likely however, that Mr. Newlands is not a candidate for any office in the gift of Nevadans, though as he is blessed with considerable worldly wealth, and money makes lively campaigns, very many will regret that he is not a candidate.

A Hint to Huntington.

Now that Mr. Huntington is coming back to this coast he ought to tell the people of Nevada why he cut off the monthly contribution of the Southern Pacific to the Reno Board of Trade.

The idea seems to prevail that the road took the step because it was inimical to the interests of Nevada. This is not a likely cause, however. R. L. Fulton was the "manager" and Allen Bragg the "official printer." The two seem to have about divided up the appropriation, Mr. Fulton of course taking the lion's share, as is his usual wont.

The amount subscribed by the Railroad Company and the people of Nevada seems to have been mainly an appropriation for the benefit of Messrs. Fulton and Bragg, the gentlemen who not so very long ago were loud in their pious denunciation of the "robbing lottery company."

This is how the Salt Lake Exchange Journal puts it: "As a firm silver advocate we would say, to Hades with Democracy and Republicanism, and give us a silver party."
